EduCare for Education®

EduCare for Education is an annual training licence comprising 17 online safeguarding, duty of care and education law and guidance programmes. It's designed as a cost-effective solution to providing every member of staff in your educational setting with essential training in all the key areas Ofsted and the law require.

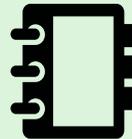

It's as easy as 1, 2, 3 ...

1. Pay a one-off annual fee.

EduCare for Education offers great value for money in one simple, annual licence. Pricing is based on the number of pupils, and starts at just £320 per year.

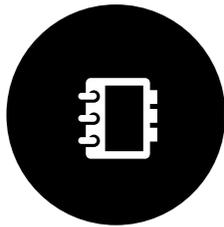

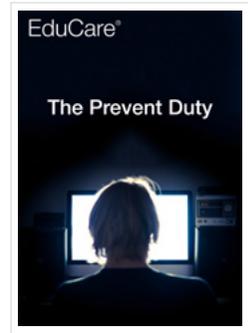

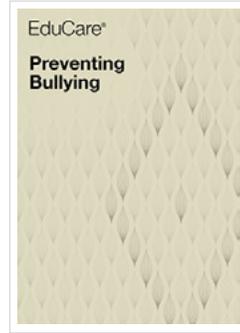

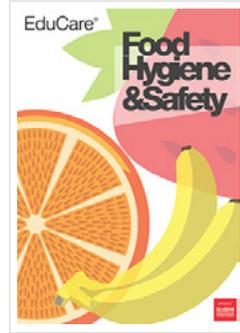

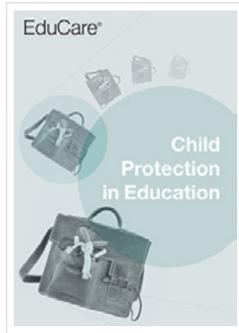

2. Receive unlimited access to 17 online training programmes.

Our programmes are written with or endorsed by leading subject experts, including 4Children, Kidscape, Family Lives, Bullying UK, and topics cover child protection, safer recruitment, preventing bullying, special educational needs and disability, e-safety, food hygiene, first aid, health and safety, the Prevent duty and more. Each programme is even verified for CPD!

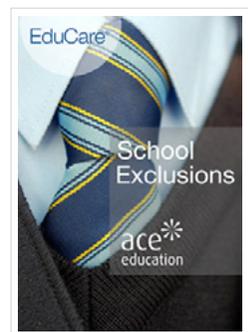

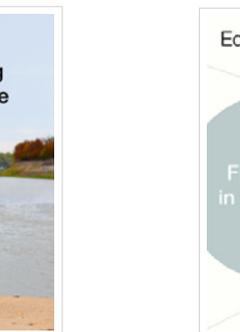

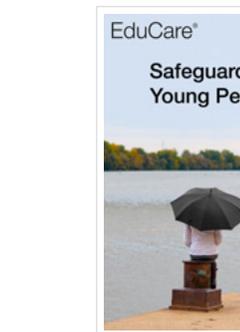

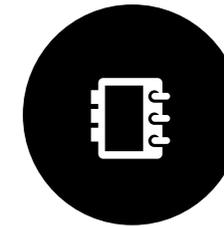

3. Ensure all staff are completely up-to-date on essential duty of care subjects.

It quickly and easily provides senior staff with the confidence that everyone is fully up-to-date on all current duty of care issues.

Receive unlimited access to 17 online training programmes.

All 17 programmes included in the licence provide a complete solution to your safeguarding and duty of care needs. Programmes contain only the essential information which is delivered across clear and concise modules. Powerful imagery, compelling video and audio narration combine together to create the ultimate learning experience. Modules conclude with multiple-choice questionnaires and a personalised, downloadable certificate. Each successfully completed module provides one hour of CPD!

Circles of Excellence.

We work with a wide range of subject experts, who play a key role in contributing to, reviewing, and endorsing our training. This ensures our programmes are always accurate and up-to-date. We also work closely with schools, colleges and nurseries to ensure our programmes continually meet the needs of the education sector.
