

Child Protection Basics for International Schools

Safeguarding children is everyone's responsibility. This course delivers essential information about child protection issues for those that work or volunteer in an education setting, who have minimal contact with children and young people. It introduces common types of child maltreatment and the signs that might indicate a child is experiencing abuse. It also gives guidance on how to respond if you have safeguarding concerns or a child confides abuse to you.

Key features

- One module with a multiple-choice questionnaire
- One CPD credit*
- Optional narration of the course module and questionnaire for accessibility
- Personalised downloadable certificate
- 70% pass mark
- Printable module for future reference

*1 CPD credit equals up to 1 hour of learning

Course content

The course covers:

- the difference between safeguarding and child protection
- the knowledge that safeguarding children is everyone's responsibility no matter what your role
- a definition of child maltreatment and the four commonly recognised forms: neglect, physical abuse, sexual abuse and emotional abuse
- the physical and behavioural signs that may indicate a child is being abused
- examples of safe working practice to help safeguard children and young people, and also to help safeguard yourself
- the importance of being vigilant and reporting any concerns to the safeguarding lead for your school
- guidance on how to respond if you have a concern or a child confides abuse to you
- guidance on how to deal with allegations against staff
- the importance of sharing information about any safeguarding concerns.

This course is suitable for

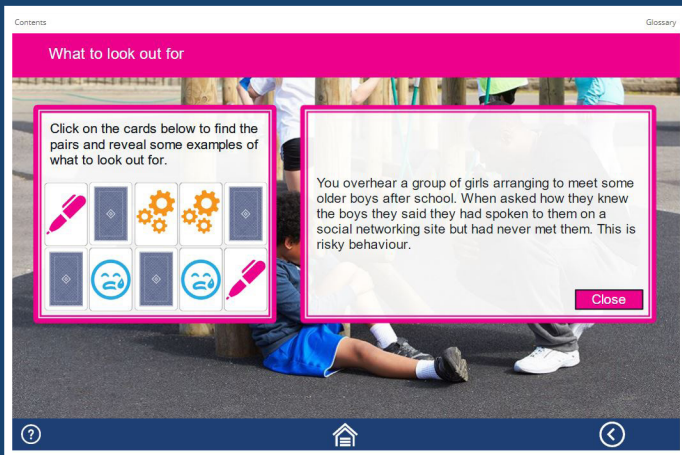

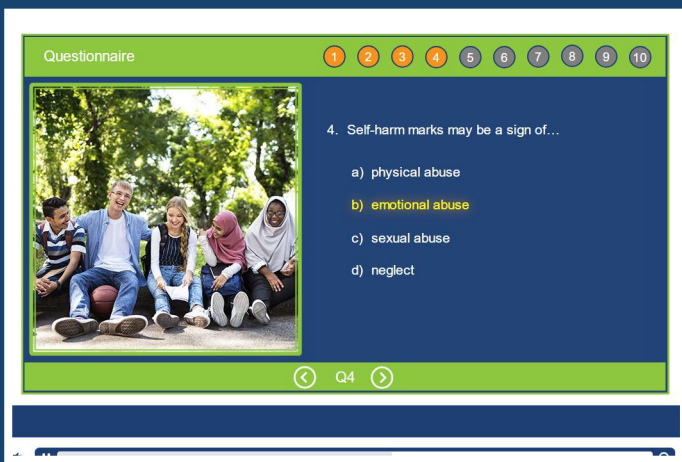

This course is suitable for anyone that works or volunteers in an international education setting who has minimal contact with children and young people.

Key features

- Visually engaging and interactive.
- Answer explanations for those who achieve the pass mark.
- Additional resources to expand learning including videos and a list of links to helplines and support if you know or suspect someone is a victim of exploitation.

Purchase options

1. Available as a standalone course on the EduCare website.
2. Buy as one of our EduCare multi-course licences. For further information, please call +44 (0)1926 436212 to discuss purchase options and licences.

Why choose us?

“EduCare provides a clear and simple mechanism to train staff in a variety of crucial and mandatory areas. Staff numbers continue to grow and time to deliver training face-to-face is becoming ever scarcer due to increased legislation.”

Phil Wise
Reading Blue Coat School

 www.educare.co.uk
 +44 (0)1926 436 211
 online@educare.co.uk

 The CPD Certification Service