

Domestic Abuse: Children and Young People

Every day children and young people experience domestic abuse at home and can suffer a wide range of severe and long-lasting effects. The purpose of the course is to raise your awareness of children and young people who may be experiencing domestic abuse. Written in partnership with SafeLives, a national charity dedicated to ending domestic abuse.

Course details

- One module with a multiple-choice questionnaire
- Two CPD credits*
- Optional narration of the course module and questionnaire for accessibility
- Personalised downloadable certificate
- 70% pass mark
- Printable module for future reference

*1 CPD credit equals up to 1 hour of learning

Course content

The purpose of the course is to help you understand and identify:

- What domestic abuse is and what forms it can take.
- What controlling and coercive behaviour is. The Power and Control Wheel (The Duluth Model) is introduced to highlight the range of tactics that perpetrators of coercive and controlling behaviour use against women specifically.
- The prevalence of domestic abuse, supported by government statistics. The prevalence of domestic abuse in adolescent, and LGBT relationships are also highlighted.
- The key risk factors to be aware of when considering the level of risk and support needed; for example, parental mental health problems, history of violence, substance misuse etc.
- Some of the trigger events that can lead to violence.
- The impact domestic abuse can have on children in different age groups, from pre-birth to 17-years-old, and the warning signs that should alert you to possible abuse taking place.
- What protective factors are and how these can help children to recover from the effects of domestic abuse.
- What to do when you suspect a child or young person is witnessing and/or experiencing domestic abuse by the introduction of key practice points.
- What support, help and advice is available.

This course is suitable for

Anyone who comes into contact with children and young people up to the age of 25.

What is domestic abuse?

Domestic abuse can happen to anyone regardless of gender or sexuality. The cross-government definition of domestic violence and abuse is:

“ any incident or pattern of incidents of controlling, coercive, threatening behaviour, violence or abuse between those aged 16 or over who are or have been intimate partners or family members, regardless of gender or sexuality. ”

The abuse can encompass but is not limited to the following forms:

psychological physical emotional sexual financial neglect

You have now finished this section. Click the 'Home' button to return to the main menu.

Key features

- Written in partnership with SafeLives
- Practical advice with support and signposting
- Visually engaging and highly interactive
- Answer explanations for those who achieve the pass mark
- Additional resources to expand learning

The Power and Control Wheel (The Duluth Model)

USING ISOLATION:

- controlling what she does, who she sees and talks to, what she reads, where she goes
- limiting her outside involvement
- using jealousy to justify actions.

Purchase options

1. Available as a standalone course on the EduCare website.
2. Buy as part of one of our multi-course licences. For further information, please call 01926 436212 to discuss purchase options and licences.

1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10

Q5

Theresa has been in a relationship with her partner for over ten years. She is not allowed to go to work or socialise without asking for permission. Using the Duluth model what type of behaviour is this? (Select two options)

Minimizing and blaming

Isolation

Economic abuse

Why choose us?

“ EduCare provides a clear and simple mechanism to train staff in a variety of crucial and mandatory areas. Staff numbers continue to grow and time to deliver training face to face is becoming ever scarcer due to increased legislation. ”

Phil Wise
Reading Blue Coat School

www.educare.co.uk
01926 436 211
online@educare.co.uk

