

Equality and Inclusion in Early Years Settings

All practitioners have a responsibility for promoting a culture of equality, dignity, courtesy and respect throughout their provision. This course introduces the key equality principles and legal requirements which apply to all staff. At EduCare we ensure that all of our training courses are written and endorsed by experts. This course has been written in partnership with experts at the Early Years Alliance, a leading educational charity specialising in the early years.

Key features

- Level 2 course (as graded against the nationally accepted levels, equivalent to GCSE grades A*-C).
- One module embedded with activities and assessment questions throughout.
- One CPD hour with a personalised downloadable certificate.
- 70% pass mark.
- Written with experts at the Early Years Alliance.
- Optional narration of the module for accessibility.
- Additional resources for further learning and a printable module for future reference.

Course objectives

This course covers an introduction to some key equality principles and legal requirements which apply to all staff working in an early years setting. It covers how all practitioners have a responsibility to contribute to promoting a culture of equality, dignity, courtesy and respect throughout their provision. The course objectives are:

1. What we mean by equality.
2. Unacceptable attitudes and practices.
3. Myth busting activities.
4. Legislation and convention.

This course also includes videos and thought-provoking activities which are embedded throughout.

Why choose us?

“ The training you provide is fantastic. Absolutely brilliant, we use the training all the time. We wouldn't be without it. ”

Rebecca Cox
Manager – Cholsey Pre-School

