

Being a Key Person in an Early Years Setting

The aim of this course is to raise your awareness of the significance and value that you have as a key person in a child's life. It begins by looking at the role and the requirements that must be fulfilled before shifting focus to the importance of developing a relationship-based approach to working with children. At EduCare we ensure that all our training courses are written and endorsed by experts. This course has been written in partnership with the Early Years Alliance.

Key features

- Level 2 course (as graded against the nationally accepted levels, equivalent to GCSE grades A*-C).
- A fully interactive course, including optional narration for accessibility, comprising one module and one questionnaire.
- One CPD hour with a personalised downloadable certificate.
- 70% pass mark.
- Written in partnership with experts at the Early Years Alliance.
- Additional resources for further learning and a printable module for future reference.

Course objectives

This course will cover important topics and practical elements of the key person role, including:

1. defining what the key person role is
2. why a key person is important
3. induction and settling-in
4. record keeping
5. the key person as teacher
6. supporting the home learning environment
7. discussing your key children during supervision
8. developing attachments.

Why choose us?

“ A fantastic training opportunity to be able to offer the team and the test at the end enables me to have confidence that the practitioners have a good understanding of the training. ”

Lorraine Weaver-Ennis
Owner, Hinckley Road Nursery

