

Safeguarding Young People

This course will provide insight into safeguarding young people, covering the essential facts needed to help raise your awareness of young people who may be vulnerable because of their age, relative inexperience, past abusive experiences or current circumstances. At EduCare we ensure that all of our training courses are written and endorsed by experts. This course is produced with and endorsed by UK Youth.

Key features

- Level 2 course (as graded against the nationally accepted levels and equivalent to GCSE grades A* - C)
- Four modules with multiple choice questionnaires.
- Four CPD hours with a personalised downloadable certificate.
- 70% pass mark.
- Optional narration of each module for accessibility.
- Additional resources for further learning and printable modules for future reference.
- Endorsed by UK Youth.

Course objectives

This course provides a thorough understanding on safeguarding young people to anyone who comes into contact with young people in their work or voluntary activity.

1. Identify who may be vulnerable.
2. Recognise the signs and indicators of abuse.
3. Understand what to do if a young person confides abuse to you.
4. Learn about recording and reporting procedures.
5. Recognise good practice guidelines.

Target audience

This course is relevant to anyone who comes into contact with young people in their work or voluntary activity.

Module content:

1. Introduction

- What abuse is and who may be vulnerable or 'at risk'.
- Circumstances that may mean a young person is vulnerable.
- The ten categories of abuse.

2. Signs and Indicators of Abuse

- The signs and indicators of abuse.
- The importance of always being alert to the possibility of it happening.
- The barriers to reporting abuse or harm.

3. Responding to Safeguarding Concerns and Disclosures

- What you should do if you receive a disclosure or if you have concerns that a person may be experiencing harm.
- Ways to start a difficult conversation should you need to.
- The correct way to record and report the information given to you, including who to report it to.

4. Good Practice Guidelines

- Current legislation and guidance.
- Good practice guidelines to safeguard the welfare of young people at risk.
- Protecting against false allegations.

Why choose us?

“ The response from our members to our EduCare programmes has been marvellous. They really appreciate all the programmes and we are delighted that we have been able to offer them this new flexible way of learning. ”

Scottish Childminding Association

“ The programmes are flexible, the topics covered are valuable and the management reporting is really useful. ”

Al Noor School

 www.educare.co.uk
 01926 436 211
 online@educare.co.uk

 uk youth
Positive About Youth

 CPD
CERTIFIED
The CPD Certification Service

 INVESTORS
IN PEOPLE

