

The Prevent Duty in an Early Years Environment

The programme explains where 'Prevent' fits in with the government's overall counter-terrorism strategy. It looks at what early years settings are expected to do and builds your knowledge of what extremism and radicalisation are and what you should do if you have a concern about a child, young person or other adult.

The purpose of the programme is to help you understand what the Prevent duty is and what you need to do to comply.

The programme covers:

- the government's counter-terrorism strategy and where the Prevent duty fits in
- what is expected of those in leadership positions in an early years environment
- what extremism and radicalisation are
- who may be at risk
- characteristics that may indicate a person is susceptible to radicalisation
- what providers must do to comply
- how Ofsted has incorporated Prevent into the new Common Inspection Framework (September 2015)
- support for individuals at risk
- what to do if you have a concern.
