

The Prevent Duty

This course provides an insight into the Prevent Duty, covering the essential facts to help you understand what the Prevent Duty is and what you need to do to comply. At EduCare we ensure that all of our training courses are written and endorsed by experts. This course meets national Police approved standards and is accredited by Secured by Design, a national police initiative designed to prevent crime.

Course details

- Level 2 course (as graded against the nationally accepted levels, equivalent to GCSE grades A* - C)
- One module with a multiple-choice questionnaire
- One CPD credit
- Optional narration of the course module and questionnaire for accessibility
- Personalised downloadable certificate
- 70% pass mark
- Printable module for future reference

*1 CPD credit equals up to 1 hour of learning

Course content

- Understand the difference between extremism and radicalisation.
- Learn about the different terrorist threats the UK faces such as Northern Ireland, right wing and Islamist terrorism.
- A look at who may be at risk of being radicalised including information on how young people are radicalised.
- Details on how groups make use of the internet to promote extremist materials, as well as how they use social media to recruit and radicalise individuals.
- A detailed timeline of Safaa Boular, the youngest teenager to be found guilty of planning a terror attack in the UK.
- A look at what Prevent is, and how it aims to reduce the threat of terrorism by stopping people becoming terrorists or supporting terrorism.
- Information on 'The Prevent Duty', which places a duty on specific bodies to have 'due regard to prevent people from being drawn into terrorism'.
- Learn about what is expected of those in leadership positions in specific bodies such as health and social care, criminal justice and all types of schools, colleges and universities.
- A look at Prevent referrals and 'Channel', which identifies and provides support to individuals at risk of being radicalised.
- Signs to look out for, what you should do if you have a concern and helpful contacts who can provide additional support.
- A helpful scenario to help you understand how a young person may become radicalised, what emotions they may be experiencing and what you should do.

This course is suitable for Anyone who comes into contact with children and young people up to the age of 25.

Contents

Timeline

Click the icons below to view the events that transpired.

3 months later - They resolved to marry and have children. Safaa planned to join him in Syria and support him in carrying out a suicide attack. Her sister also planned to go Syria.

August 2016 - Both girls, on returning from a holiday in Morocco were arrested at Stansted airport. The girls had their passports confiscated and were released on bail.

August 2016 to March 2017 - Safaa continued to chat to Hussain using a mobile phone that she hid inside a cushion at home. They plotted to carry out a grenade attack on the British Museum in London.

Navigation icons: Home, Previous, Next

Contents

What are extremism and radicalisation?

Click the icons below to view each of the definitions

Non-violent extremism is defined as extremism, but without violence. Non-violent extremism can create an atmosphere in a community which can popularise the view of terrorism which terrorists can then exploit.

You have now finished this section, click the 'Home' button to return to the main menu.

Navigation icons: Home

Contents

Threat of terrorism

The graph shows the number of arrests and convictions for terrorism-related offences in the UK since 2010.

Year to December	Total arrests	Trials - Acquitted	Trials - Convicted
2010	~120	~10	~10
2011	~180	~15	~15
2012	~280	~20	~20
2013	~240	~25	~25
2014	~300	~30	~30
2015	~280	~35	~35
2016	~280	~40	~40
2017	~420	~50	~50

Navigation icons: Home, Previous, Next

Key features

- Visually engaging and highly interactive.
- Video to highlight important information.
- Thought-provoking case study and scenario (by using a scenario within the course, the participant's knowledge of what to look out for will be strengthened).
- Answer explanations for those who achieve the pass mark.
- Additional resources to expand learning.

Purchase options

1. Available as a standalone course on the EduCare website.
2. Buy as part of our EduCare for Education multi-course licence for educational establishments. For further information, please call 01926 436212 to discuss purchase options and licences.

Why choose us?

“ EduCare have been the primary provider of online Child Protection training for Solihull College and University Centre staff since October 2014. We felt that the EduCare product was engaging, current, well presented and sufficiently detailed, whilst their customer services are responsive and supportive. ”

Reza Mosavian, Head of Learning Technologies
Solihull College and University Centre

www.educare.co.uk
01926 436 211
online@educare.co.uk

